What happens if I become disabled during school?
If you experience a disabling illness or injury that lasts more than 90 days, your ADA student disability insurance provides a $2,000 monthly benefit that is payable for up to seven years. You will qualify for disability benefits during the first two years if you are unable to perform the normal duties of a dental student. Following the first two years, you will qualify for disability benefits over the next five years if you are unable to perform the duties of any occupation.

In addition to the $2,000 of basic monthly disability coverage, the ADA Student Disability Insurance also provides up to $2,000 per month of loan repayment protection (up to $150,000 total) so long as you are unable to perform the normal duties of a dental student. Loan repayment provisions can vary significantly among disability policies, so be sure to check those provisions carefully when comparing policies, or call an Insurance Plan Specialist at 855.411.5199 for help.

How do I name or change my life insurance beneficiary?
To name a beneficiary, complete the beneficiary designation form that accompanies your Certificates of Insurance that you’ll receive in the mail. To change a beneficiary, go to insurance.ada.org to get a beneficiary change form. Because it is legally binding, your written request must include your signature. Call Member Services at 800.568.2001 if you have questions.

How much insurance do I need?
It depends on your individual circumstances, such as whether you have a spouse and children, how much debt is in your name, how close you are to graduation and/or practice ownership, and more.

Contact an Insurance Plan Specialist to help you assess whether or not you need an amount beyond the no-cost coverage provided.

How does my no-cost disability and life insurance change after graduation?
On July 1 of the year you graduate, your no-cost $50,000 of life insurance automatically doubles to $100,000. Your $50,000 of accidental death coverage also doubles to $100,000 at that time. Your disability insurance stays the same. You’ll continue to receive all disability and life insurance at no cost until the end of that calendar year unless you choose to take advantage of the early disability conversion period that begins in January of the year you graduate.

When can I request my insurance?
You can request activation of the no-cost coverage as soon as you know your ADA number. Your insurance will be issued upon verification of your ADA student membership.

Will I have to renew the insurance every year?
No. Once enrolled, your no-cost coverage automatically renews each year throughout dental school and residency, as long as you remain an ADA member.

Can I keep the no-cost disability and life insurance during residency?
Yes. As long as you share your post-graduate plans with ADA Members Insurance Plans and maintain your ADA membership, your coverage can continue at no cost throughout your residency.

Why should I consider disability and life insurance now?
Being insured at a younger age means you’re already covered as you age, when insurance may be more difficult to obtain. Disability and life insurance may be required as collateral for a practice loan, so obtaining insurance in advance is one of the things that may help you prepare for your future. You may also want to consider applying for more insurance coverage as your family and income grow.

Can I get ADA student disability insurance if I have a policy with another carrier?
Yes. The ADA Student Disability Insurance Plan allows you to have up to $3,000/month from all sources before coordinating benefits with other insurance carriers. If you have coverage through multiple policies, check each one for restrictions regarding the benefits you could claim.
Can I apply for more insurance than what is provided at no cost?

Yes. Life Insurance: You can apply for up to $500,000 in ADA Term Life Insurance at any time, and up to $3 million during your graduation year. You can also apply for ADA Term Life Insurance for your spouse and/or children.

Disability Insurance: If you wish to apply for more, beginning in January of the year you graduate, you must first convert your student disability insurance to the $2,000/month of Disability Income Protection Insurance and begin paying premiums. Then, you’ll have the option to apply for an additional $3,000/month of this coverage.

How do I convert my no-cost coverage to the more comprehensive member coverage?

To convert your student disability coverage before graduation, visit insurance.ada.org to download a Student Disability Insurance Conversion Form. Your insurance becomes effective once ADA Members Insurance Plans receives the form and you begin paying premiums.

If you wait, in December of the year you graduate, you’ll receive an invoice for Term Life, Disability Income Protection and Office Overhead Expense Insurance (which can be used to help repay student loans if you become disabled). Simply maintain active ADA membership and pay your premiums by January 1 to convert to these plans. Be sure you are registered online and update your contact information so you don’t miss this conversion offer.

Can I convert to a member plan before the end of the year I graduate?

Yes. Beginning in January of the year you graduate, you have the option to convert your student disability insurance to the more comprehensive insurance plans for ADA members who are practicing dentists. By forgoing the no-cost coverage in exchange for the more comprehensive coverage, you can elect one or both disability insurance plans, both of which include the “own occupation” definition of disability:

- $2,000/month in Disability Income Protection Insurance — pays benefits to age 67
- $2,000/month of Office Overhead Expense Insurance — helps repay student loans should you become disabled

What if I want more coverage than what is provided in the conversion offer?

You can increase your coverage and add other insurance plans offered at low ADA member premiums throughout your career. However, you will be required to provide proof of good health and/or income for these increases. Contact an Insurance Plan Specialist to discuss your options.
